Cumulative Author Index to Volumes Seven through Nine of Journal of Direct Marketing

Listings are arranged alphabetically by author and alphabetically by article. Principal or sole authors appear in boldface type. If a name appears in both bold and regular type, it means that the author has appeared as both a principal and a secondary author on different articles. References are first to volume number, then to issue number of the periodical in which the article appears. Note: "Principal" author refers to the first name on a paper's title page and has been retained for convenience in indexing, even in cases where the authors have indicated equal participation in the article.
